music and lyrics Rainer Escheberg

thirty nine point six is playing joking tricks shaking all my body from the top to the hips waves of hot- and coldness are screwing all through my bones and the need of resistance makes me a rolling stone and i am shivering inside the clouds of nothingness around

and you don't know the way you're bound

it's an incredible mix of anguish happiness in pain it nearly drives me it drives me insane

rough tough feeling inside there's just no place to hide and then it comes like a tidal wave boy, did you see that cave?
